

CHELVA R. RAJAH SC - Curriculum Vitae

- Date of Birth : 3 November 1948.
- Education : Anglo-Chinese School, Singapore. (1955 - 1966)
Lincoln College, Oxford University. (1967 - 1970)
Inns of Court (Middle Temple), London. (1970 - 1971)
- Sport : Captained Ceylon Sports Club in Singapore at cricket from 1977 to 1989. Played cricket for Singapore at various times between 1974 and 1987. Vice President Singapore Cricket Association from 1983 – 1992. Patron Ceylon Sports Club from 2002.
- Professional experience & appointments : Admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court, Singapore in 1972. Practising law in Singapore for 37 years.
- President of the Law Society of Singapore from 1990 to 1992.
 - Vice-President of the Singapore Academy of Law from April 1991 to July 1993.
 - Member of the Military Court of Appeal, Singapore from 1992 to June 1995.
 - Judicial Commissioner, High Court of Singapore from July 1995 to June 1997.
 - Appointed Senior Counsel in January 1998.
 - Chairman, Singapore National Committee, Asean Law Association from 2005 to 2006.
 - Member of the ICC International Court of Arbitration.
 - Arbitrator in more than 50 domestic and/or international arbitrations.
 - Currently a partner in Tan Rajah & Cheah, a Singapore law firm with 31 lawyers. Mainly engaged in arbitration/general litigation and in banking, construction, company, commercial, insolvency and contract related matters.
- Directorships in Singapore : Non-executive director of the following listed public companies in Singapore :-
- Listed Companies : UOB-Kay Hian Holdings Limited
Overseas Union Enterprise Limited
- Non-Professional Appointments : Singapore's Non-Resident High Commissioner to Papua New Guinea.
Board Member, Mercy Relief.
Member of Legal Commission, Singapore Red Cross.
Chairman, Maxwell Chambers Pte. Ltd.