Professional Experience

I am co-located in the Dubai and Singapore offices of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer.

I have significant experience in acting as counsel in arbitrations relating to major projects and has a Band 2 Chambers Global ranking for Construction.

Clients have described me as ‘An absolute powerhouse in the construction dispute sphere, with exceptional technical skills and a work ethic which is second to none’. Chambers Global 2016, Construction

I have also been selected for the Who's Who Legal – Arbitration Future Leaders 2017 where I was described as a “future superstar” and a “tough, no-nonsense advocate”.

Experience

- A major Korean contractor in an ICC arbitration with a GCC entity over defects and delay claims arising from the construction of a power plant.
- A GCC governmental entity in two expert determinations as well as an ICC arbitration in relation to a multi-billion USD dispute regarding the construction and ongoing operations of an independent water and power plant.
- A joint venture consisting of various construction and contracting services companies in DIAC arbitration proceedings concerning a several hundred million USD dispute with one of the largest aviation corporations in the Middle East concerning the construction of two terminals at an international airport in the Middle East
- A Middle East-based leading construction and contracting services company on a significant dispute over the construction of a mixed-use development (retail, commercial and residential).
- An international contractor on a dispute over the construction of a 5 star resort hotel in the UAE. The project involved the construction of multiple hotel towers, chalets, as well as an on-site village which includes a number of apartments, a spa building, staff accommodation, several sub-buildings and leisure facilities.
- One of the largest international construction consultancy firms on behalf of a large international construction group regarding ICSID proceedings against a governmental institution in the Middle East in connection with a dispute arising out of the construction of an international airport located in the Middle East.
- A consortium of Korean EPC contractors in an ICC arbitration with a multi-national owner over the construction of a coal-fired power plant in eastern Africa. The dispute involved hundreds of defects claims and required the engagement of 4 technical engineering experts.
- An Abu Dhabi real estate developer in a multi-million dollar infrastructure development project before the Abu Dhabi Commercial Conciliation and Arbitration Centre (ADCCAC).
