Independent Arbitrator, Vancouver Arbitration Chambers (VAC).

Professional Experience

Henri Alvarez is an internationally recognized Canadian arbitrator who practices as an independent neutral at Vancouver Arbitration Chambers (VAC). Before establishing an independent arbitration practice (effective 1 December 2016), Henri was a partner of Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP.

With over 30 years of experience, Henri has acted as both an arbitrator and as counsel in international and domestic commercial arbitrations involving investments, trade, franchising, licensing, distributorship, construction, forestry, oil and gas, energy, banking, corporate and general commercial disputes. He has served as sole arbitrator, party-appointed arbitrator and Chairman under the auspices of several international arbitral institutions (ICC, LCIA, ICSID, AAA, HKIAC, DIFC-LCIA, NAI) and regularly conducts arbitrations in English, Spanish and French. As a member of the Court of Arbitration for Sport, Henri has served on several panels in anti-doping and eligibility cases. He has also acted as counsel in Canadian courts in disputes over challenges and enforcement of arbitral awards.

Arbitration Experience

Over 100 arbitrations under international arbitration rules and ad hoc.

Publications
