Current Position

Herbert Smith Freehills L.L.P., Beijing: Partner (Disputes/International Arbitration)

Professional Experience

Jessica is an international arbitration and dispute resolution specialist with over 20 years' experience working with international arbitration institutions (CIETAC and ICDR) and leading firms in New York and Asia. Her practice focuses on large-scale international arbitration and litigation in China, Asia, Europe and the US for clients that include Chinese state owned enterprises, multinationals and major regional corporates.

Jessica represents and assists clients in international arbitrations under different institutional rules (including SIAC, ICC, CIETAC, HKIAC, ICDR, SCC and BAC) and UNCITRAL Rules, as well as litigation matters in and outside China in English and Chinese language. She handles disputes relating to energy, construction/infrastructure, trade, international investment (eg, China joint venture disputes), manufacturing, distribution, intellectual property and employment matters.

Jessica sits regularly as arbitrator in commercial arbitration cases, and is a frequent speaker in international conferences on arbitration related topics.

Arbitration Experience

Jessica has been involved in international arbitration work since 1994. She has about eight years of experience working as a case manager and research fellow with leading international arbitration institutions, including CIETAC in Beijing and the ICDR/AAA in New York, where she administered and coordinated more than 300 international arbitration and mediation cases.

Jessica has extensive experience in acting as counsel and advocate in their arbitrations in China and globally under the rules of: SIAC, CIETAC, ICC, HKIAC, SCC, ICDR, LCIA, BAC and UNCITRAL, with seats in Singapore, Hong Kong, Beijing, Shanghai, Stockholm, London, Geneva, New York and Houston among others.

She has acted as arbitrator in commercial arbitrations administered by various institutions in and outside China concerning disputes of joint venture, international sales contract, licensing agreement and etc.
