

ABASCAL, JOSE MARIA
Address	Cerrada Flor De agua II. Mexico. D. F. 01030 Mexico
Telephone	52 55 5662 5251
Fax	52 55 5662 5376
Email	jma@abascal-asociados.com
Nationality	Mexican

Educational/Professional Associations

Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico (B.A. 1960). Mexican Bar, First Vice President (2001). Chairman Trade Law Commission (1989-1998). Chairman Ethics Commission (2002-2004). Chairman Insolvency Committee (2006-), Advisory Commission on Private International Law and International Mercantile Law, Secretaria de Relaciones Exteriores (1985-). Member, Mexican Academy of International Private Law and Comparative Law. Correspondent UNIDROIT (Institute of Rome for the Unification of Private Law)

Current Position

Counsel and arbitrator.

Professional Experience

1960 to present, practices domestic and international commercial litigation and arbitration. Constantly acts as counsel and arbitrator in commercial arbitration disputes in the broadest areas of industry. Has served as Commissioner in the United Nations Security Council Compensation Commission (UNCC; October 96' to July 03')

Arbitration Experience

He has been involved in many disputes relating to amongst other things; construction of a dock in front of the Panama Channel (sole arbitrator, Panama Conciliation and Arbitration Centre), a waste disposal contract dispute between Canadian investor and Latin American government; a good number of cases in construction of electric, hydroelectric and thermoelectric power facilities, and transmission lines (in Mexico and in Colombia); many joint ventures, shareholders' agreement disputes and many others.

Publications

Author of more than 200 publications in specialized newspapers, magazines and books, on various topics including more than 150 weekly articles for the column "Legal Guide" in the Mexican newspaper El Financiero.

Languages

Spanish and English