

LATIFF, IBRAHIM
Address	55 Market Street #14-00 Singapore 048941
Telephone	(65) 6603 0987
Fax	(65) 6603 0999
Email	latiffibrahim@incalaw.com
Nationality/ Date of Birth	Singaporean / 27 June 1959

Educational/Professional Memberships

Bachelor of Law (Hons – 2nd Upper), National University of Singapore; Advocate & Solicitor Singapore; Member – Law Society of Singapore; Member – Singapore Academy of Law; Member – Society of Construction Law, Singapore; Regional Panel of Arbitrators – Singapore International Arbitration Centre; Fellow – Singapore Institute of Arbitrators; Accredited Adjudicator – Building & Construction Industry Security of Payment Act, Singapore Mediation Centre ; Member (Chairman) – Appeal Board constituted under the Administration of Muslim Law Act; Associate Member – Singapore Senior Police Officers’ Mass; Board of Director – Jurong Health Services Pte Ltd ; Member – Board of Trustees – NUH Patientcare Charity Fund & NUH Research Endowment Fund; Board Member – Community Silver Trust Evaluation Panel (Health); Council Member – National Crime Prevention Council; Board of Director – Warees Investments Pte Ltd, a community service company service owned by the Singapore Muslim Religious Council; Member – Management Committee, Muhammadiyah Children’s Home.

Current Position

Managing Director of INCA Law LLC

Professional Experience

He has extensive experience in advising, drafting and negotiating various building, engineering and EPC contracts, concession agreements, off-take and other long-term supply agreements, fuel supply agreements, project management agreements, consultants' agreements, bonds, warranties and other related documents. On the front-end work, he has advised on various infrastructure projects in Singapore and the region such as commercial and residential developments, various chemical, cement and process plants, sea ports, hospitals, roads and integrated resort. He has advised on prominent projects in Singapore and the region.

Arbitration Experience

His main areas of practice are in both the front-end and dispute resolution aspects of construction and engineering projects, and commercial arbitrations. He has acted as counsel in a variety of construction and engineering disputes including the Nicoll Highway Collapse, the 3 Church Street building dispute and various disputes between major developers/owners and contractors and management corporations in Singapore and the region.

Publications

An often sought after speaker, Latiff has presented numerous papers on construction law and related issues at various seminars and forums. He has also been consistently cited for his expertise in Construction Law by the Asia -Pacific Legal 500, a leading international law firm appraisal publication.

Languages

English and Malay