Current Position

Managing Partner

Professional Experience

Nicolas Wiegand is Co-Head of the firm's dispute resolution group, Head of APAC International Arbitration and Managing Partner of the CMS Hong Kong office.

Nicolas – a German qualified lawyer – is specialised in international commercial and investment arbitration with a focus on corporate law, post M&A, joint venture, commercial, sales and distribution and IP disputes as well as the energy (renewables, nuclear power), pharmaceutical, medical equipment, automotive, construction and infrastructure sectors. He is particularly experienced with arbitration in or in relation to Europe and Asia, specifically China, Korea, Japan, Singapore, Australia, Taiwan, Vietnam, Thailand and Indonesia as well as other South-East Asian jurisdictions.

Nicolas has so far acted as counsel and arbitrator in over 130 international arbitrations under all major arbitration rules (mainly ICC, HKIAC, KCAB, DIAC and DIS, but also SIAC, LCIA, JCAA, ASA, VIAC, SCC and others) as well as in ad hoc arbitrations. He also acted in numerous investment disputes (ICSID, UNCITRAL) and disputes involving states and state-owned enterprises.

Alongside his work as a party representative, Nicolas is an experienced arbitrator and on the panel of arbitrators of numerous international arbitral institutions in Asia, Europe, the Middle East and beyond. He is regularly engaged as a speaker at international arbitration conferences and runs training courses for arbitral institutions.

Arbitration Experience

To date, Nicolas has sat as arbitrator in 34 commercial arbitrations (28 institutional, 6 ad hoc); he was appointed chairman on six occasions, sole arbitrator in fifteen arbitrations and co-arbitrator in thirteen proceedings. He has also sat as Emergency Arbitrator in ICC proceedings. The seats of his cases include the world's most important arbitral venues, such as Hong Kong, Singapore, Seoul, Zurich, Frankfurt, Tokyo and Dubai. The laws applicable to the arbitrations Nicolas has sat in include amongst others Hong Kong, Korean, German, Japanese, Swiss, Singaporean, U.S., Mongolian and Sri Lankan law.
