

TEO, PAUL JP
Address	c/o Baker McKenzie 14th Floor, Hutchinson House 10 Harcourt Road Hong Kong SAR
Telephone	D +852 2846 2581 M +852 6030 2691
Fax	F +852 2845 0476
Email	paul.teo@bakermckenzie.com
Nationality / Date of Birth	Singaporean / 1970

Education/Professional Memberships

National University of Singapore - Bachelor of Laws, LLB (Hons), 1996
Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Keble College, Oxford) - Postgraduate Diploma in International Commercial Arbitration, DipICarb, 2006
Harvard Law School - Mediation Workshop (Program on Negotiation), 2007
Presidential Arbitrator, Chartered Institute of Arbitrators
Accredited Arbitrator: HKIAC, ICC, KLRCA, LCIA, SIAC
Fellow: AMINZ, CI Arb, HKI Arb, IAMA, SI Arb
Member, Law Society of England and Wales
Member, Law Society of Hong Kong
Member, Law Society of Singapore
Contributing Editor, Singapore Journal of Construction Law
Member, Society of Construction Law
Member, Maritime Law Association of Singapore

Current Position

Partner and Head of Arbitration, Greater China, Baker McKenzie

Professional Experience

Paul Teo heads Baker McKenzie's Arbitration Group in Greater China, and he focuses on commercial disputes and project-related disputes in the energy, oil and gas, power, renewables, infrastructure, construction, offshore and marine, and telecommunications sectors. He has 20 years of experience advising and representing parties as counsel and solicitor in a wide range of proceedings, from arbitration and adjudication to alternative dispute resolution and court proceedings. He has acted in connection with projects situated in Hong Kong, China, Macau, Mongolia, Philippines, Vietnam, Thailand, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, India and Bangladesh, as well as projects further afield in Central Asia, Gulf Region, Africa and Latin America. Paul is recognized by Who's Who Legal, Chambers Asia Pacific, Euromoney and Benchmark Litigation as a leading lawyer in arbitration and construction. Prior to joining Baker McKenzie, Paul co-led a multinational law firm's international arbitration practice for Southeast Asia. Before that, he was co-head of another multinational law firm's international arbitration practice in Beijing.

Arbitration Experience

Paul is a Chartered Arbitrator and he serves on the panel of major arbitral institutions including HKIAC, SIAC, KLRCA, LCIA and ICC. He has acted as arbitrator, counsel and solicitor in numerous arbitration proceedings (and related litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution proceedings). He is familiar with the major arbitral rules including as BANI, CIETAC, HKIAC, ICC, ICDR/AAA, KLRCA, LCIA, SIAC, VIAC, UNCITRAL and ICSID.

Publications

Paul writes and contributes regularly to industry and professional publications.

Languages

English, Mandarin, Cantonese and Teochew.