Professional Experience

1975 – 1977 Willis Faber & Dumas (Lloyd's Broker)
1977 – Present Ince & Co
2000-2008 Senior Partner of Ince & Co
Having worked initially for a Lloyd's broker and then joining a specialist shipping and insurance firm my practice has been focussed on insurance and reinsurance both in the London market and internationally. Extensive experience in most forms of insurance in particular marine, aviation, energy and political/credit risk. Particular experience in advising on large complex disputes, including the PCW fraud, the LMX Spiral in the late 80's, the collapse of the Maxwell empire, Lloyd's reconstruction and renewal, the PA and WCA Spirals of the mid-to late 90's, the mortgage indemnity crisis, the Unicover debacle, the Swiss Bank Holocaust claim, the 9/11 attack on the World Trade Centre, the collapse of Enron and the SARS outbreak.

Arbitration Experience

Acting as a solicitor in a very large number of major arbitration matters, arbitration being the traditional form of dispute resolution in reinsurance contracts. Formulating two important test cases by way of judicial arbitration (The "Bamburi" [1982] 1 Lloyd's Rep 312 and The PCW Syndicates v The PCW Reinsurers [1995] 4 Re LR 373).
Sitting as a party appointed arbitrator in a major Bermudian/US reinsurance dispute.
Sitting as third arbitrator in a large Bankers' Blanket Bond dispute.
