Professional Experience

Dr. Remy Gerbay is an experienced international arbitration lawyer and arbitrator whose practice focuses on commercial arbitration and investment arbitration.

Remy is also an academic at the School of International Arbitration at Queen Mary University of London (permanent academic post), where he has been teaching for 10 years.

He was identified as a "Future Leader" of arbitration by Who's Who Legal (2017-2021), where he was ranked number 1 "Most Highly Regarded Individual (Non-Partners Category)" in the Americas region.

Remy has been described by clients and peers as:

- "outstanding both on a technical and practical level; really sharp and on the money"
Who's Who 2017
- "enjoys an outstanding reputation in the international arbitration market. Impresses peers with his strong understanding of business and his perfect grasp of both civil and common laws"
Who's Who 2018
- "not only technically and legally excellent but is uncompromising in the quality of service he aims at providing"
Who's Who 2019

Remy has also been featured in Legal 500 (U.S.A.), and Legal 500 (U.K.) for international arbitration.

Prior to joining Hughes Hubbard in 2021, Remy practiced with leading litigation boutique law firms in London and Washington (2014-2021). Before that, Remy was the Deputy Registrar of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), and the Registrar pro tem of the DIFC-LCIA Arbitration Centre in Dubai (2009-2012). In these capacities, he oversaw hundreds of international arbitrations, adjudications and mediations in a wide range of industry sectors. Earlier in his career, Remy trained and practiced with the arbitration group of Herbert Smith LLP (now Herbert Smith Freehills) in London and Paris (2006-2009), and worked in the field of public international law at a United Nations agency in Geneva (2002-2004).

In addition to Queen Mary University, Remy has guest lectured at various institutions including Georgetown (Washington DC and London), SciencesPo (Paris), NYU, Charles University of Prague, University of Warsaw, ESCP-EAP (Paris) and University of Lyon.

Remy is a member of the Editorial Boards of the Journal of International Arbitration (Kluwer) and of the ICC Bulletin. Remy is also a former co-Chair (2013-2017) of the Young International Arbitration Group (YIAG), a 10,000+ member organisation of young practitioners established in 1997 by the LCIA.
