

STEPHEN R. BOND Senior Of Counsel

Covington & Burling LLP
265 Strand
London WC2R 1BH
Tel: 44.(0)20.7067.2024
sbond@cov.com

Practices

- Litigation
- Arbitration
 - International Arbitration

Education

- Columbia Law School, J.D., 1968
- Brown University, A.B., 1965

Bar Admissions

- New York

Languages

- French

Stephen Bond is senior of counsel in the firm's London office who specializes in international commercial arbitration. He has served as an advocate or arbitrator in dozens of international arbitrations under the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce, the London Court of International Arbitration, the Stockholm Arbitration Institute, the Japanese Commercial Arbitration Association, the Vienna Centre, and UNCITRAL. Mr. Bond's experience includes disputes in the energy, international joint venture, construction, technology, sales and distribution fields.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Representation of a major Russian entity in three arbitrations in Vienna, two administered by the International Arbitration Centre of the Austrian Federal Economic Chamber and one ad hoc, all governed by Russian law and the UNCITRAL rules, and all relating to the Russian oil industry.
- Representation of a Belgian company in an arbitration in London governed by Indian substantive law relating to a dispute in the power sector in Southeast Asia.
- Representation (as co-counsel) of a European telecommunications company against multiple respondents in a dispute arising out of a project in Eastern Europe.
- Representation of a Belgian construction company in an arbitration in Cyprus governed by Yemeni substantive law.
- Representation of an Indonesian telecommunications company in an arbitration in Geneva under a contract governed by Indonesian law concerning disputes in the telecommunications sector in Indonesia.
- Representation of a European metals company in an arbitration brought by a US mining company relating to disputes concerning the performance and termination of a refining agreement governed by Swiss law.
- Representation of respondents in an arbitration in London initiated by a major international gold company in relation to the sale by our clients to the Claimant of their shares of a company operating a gold mine in Africa. Belgian law was applicable.
- Representation of a European bank as claimant in an arbitration in London under English substantive law against a major American software supplier. In the midst of the arbitration, the parties engaged in a successful mediation under CEDR auspices.

- Chairman of an ICC arbitral tribunal in an arbitration under Russian law relating to the sale of military equipment.
- Chairman of the arbitral tribunal in an arbitration under the rules of the Japan Commercial Arbitration Association regarding the pharmaceutical industry.
- Party-appointed arbitrator in various arbitrations under the rules of the Stockholm Institute and ICC concerning construction and hotel management agreements in Russia.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Partner in and then co-head of the International Arbitration Practice Group of a major international law firm (1993-2008).
- International Chamber of Commerce, Secretary General of the International Court of Arbitration (1985-1991)
- ICC International Court of Arbitration, U.S. Member (1994-1999)
- Vice Chairman of the ICC Working Group that drafted the 1998 ICC Rules of Arbitration.
- Office of the Legal Adviser of the Department of State, Assistant Legal Adviser
- United States Mission to the United Nations in Geneva, Counselor for Legal Affairs. Mr. Bond received the State Department's Distinguished Honors Award.
- Law practice in New York and Paris and clerking in the Federal District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

HONORS AND RANKINGS

- Chambers Global
- Chambers Europe
- Chambers UK (2010-2012)
- The Practical Law Company (PLC) - Which Lawyer?
- Legal 500 UK, International Arbitration (2009-2011)
- Legal 500 EMEA
- Who's Who Legal
- Who's Who Legal recognized Mr. Bond as one of the 20 "most highly regarded individuals" for commercial arbitration (2009).
- He has been described as being "faultless on points of law," an "effective and thorough advocate" possessed of "utter professionalism" (Chambers Global 2003-2004, 2004-2005),

"absolutely first rate", "one of the best you'll ever work with," "one of the finest arbitrators in England", "phenomenal", "revered" by many of the lawyers we spoke to" (Who's Who Legal 2007, 2011 and 2012), and "an excellent strategist and a consummate advocate" (Legal 500 2011).

MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

Panels of Arbitrators and Other Affiliations

- Paris Bar (1992-2008)
- In 2008, Mr. Bond was appointed General Editor of the Stockholm International Arbitration Review, a publication of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, which is a leading arbitral body for cases involving CIS countries, among others, and investment disputes.
- Association Suisse de l'Arbitrage
- Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Fellow)
- Comité Français de l'Arbitrage
- Institute for Transnational Arbitration (Advisory Board Member)
- International Bar Association
- ICC Commission on International Commercial Arbitration
- World Arbitration and Mediation Report (Advisory Board Member)
- American Arbitration Association (International Panel)
- Arbitral Centre of the Federal Economic Chamber (Vienna, Austria)
- Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration
- China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission ("CIETAC")
- Court of Arbitration at the Polish Chamber of Commerce
- Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre
- International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution ("CPR"), International Panel of Distinguished Neutrals
- Korean Commercial Arbitration Board
- London Court of International Arbitration
- Permanent Arbitration Court at the Croatian Chamber of Commerce
- UCSID Arbitration Committee's Expatriate Subcommittee (France representative)
- Singapore International Arbitration Centre
- U.S. Council for International Business (ICC National Committee in US)

- World Intellectual Property Organization