Arbitration Experience

Miloš Olík has many years of experience in arbitration proceedings under the rules of various institutions, such as the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris (ICC), the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), the Swedish Chamber of Commerce (SCC), the Arbitration Court of the Economic and Agrarian Chamber of the Czech Republic (RSHKAK) and the rules of the United Nations Commission on International Law (UNCITRAL). He has even led legal teams representing states in investment disputes and multinational companies in international commercial arbitrations.

Miloš Olík has also acted as an arbitrator in more than 200 arbitration proceedings, including investment disputes (two cases under ICSID rules). He is registered on the list of arbitrators of the Czech Arbitration Court at the Czech Chamber of Commerce and Agrarian Chamber of the Czech Republic and leading international institutions (CIETAC, LCIA, VIAC, HKIAC, SCIA, SAKIG). Miloš is the vice-chairman of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Czech Republic, chairman of the Arbitration Council of the Football Association of the Czech Republic, vice-chairman of the National Court of Arbitration for Sport and a member of many other professional associations and organizations.

Miloš Olík is listed in the Arbitration Ranking jointly organized by Who's Who Legal and GAR (Global Arbitration Review). He has been ranked by the prestigious international ranking Chambers Global in Band 2 for dispute resolution and arbitration in the Czech Republic.
