SIAC Announces the Appointment of Deputy Head (Americas)

The Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) is pleased to announce that Mr Eugenio Gómez-Chico has been appointed to the position of Deputy Head (Americas).

As Deputy Head (Americas), Eugenio will assist the Head (Americas), Ms Adriana Uson, in the development and implementation of SIAC's initiatives in the Americas. He has broad experience in international law, having worked in government and academia in different jurisdictions in the Americas and Asia Pacific. Eugenio is a Mexican national and holds a Master of Laws from Yale Law School.

Ms Lim Seok Hui, CEO of SIAC, said, "We are delighted to welcome Eugenio to the SIAC team. His experience in both Asia Pacific and the Americas will bring a useful, multicultural perspective to his role as he works closely with the legal and business communities in the Americas to jointly promote the law and practice of international arbitration."
