SIAC Signs Memorandum of Understanding with the Thammasat University Faculty of Law

The Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) is pleased to announce that it has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Thammasat University Faculty of Law (TU Law).

Under the MOU, SIAC and TU Law will work together to place law students from TU Law in internships at SIAC. In addition, SIAC and TU Law will collaborate to incorporate a module on “SIAC and Institutional Arbitration” into the TU law programme. Upon request by SIAC or TU Law, both parties will also conduct joint training programmes, seminars, workshops or other events in Thailand to promote the development and practice of international arbitration.

The MOU was signed on 8 July 2020 by Ms Lim Seok Hui, Chief Executive Officer of SIAC, and Associate Professor Dr. Munin Pongsapan, Dean of TU Law.

Associate Professor Dr. Munin Pongsapan, Dean of TU Law, said, “We are delighted to be entering into this MOU with SIAC, one of the world’s top arbitral institutions. We firmly believe that this collaboration will serve to cultivate and enhance the growing popularity of international arbitration as an effective dispute resolution mechanism among future generations of Thai lawyers.”

Ms Lim Seok Hui, CEO of SIAC, said, “Thai parties are valued top foreign users of SIAC. We look forward to working closely with TU Law, a premier Thai academic institution, to jointly promote the benefits of institutional arbitration to the Thai arbitration community.”
