Professional Experience

Peter Chow is an international arbitrator and arbitration counsel. He has substantial experience with high-stakes, complex international disputes globally, including those related to energy & natural resources, oil & gas, infrastructure & construction, and technology projects, shareholders and other commercial disputes.

Prior to practising as an independent arbitrator and counsel, Peter was a partner at three US international law firms, namely, King & Spalding (Singapore), Squire Patton Boggs (Hong Kong), and Bryan Cave (Hong Kong). He held various leadership roles, including head of Asia disputes practice, global head of Greater China disputes practice, and head of office. Peter has practised in Singapore, Australia and Hong Kong.

Peter has acted as counsel in numerous arbitration cases, including those involving SIAC, ICC, HKIAC, CIETAC, ICDR, AAA, NAI and UNCITRAL arbitral rules. He has been involved in arbitrations in Asia for over 30 years and is one of the most experienced arbitration lawyers in Asia. Peter has represented clients in some of the largest arbitrations in Asia, including five cases involving multi-billion US Dollar claims.

Peter is also a Chartered Arbitrator and on the panels of arbitrators of major arbitration institutions in a number of countries, including Singapore, Hong Kong, U.K., Australia, Mainland China, Malaysia, South Korea, Vietnam and Russia.

Peter has been recognized as a "litigation star" by Benchmark Litigation Asia Pacific and as a world leading practitioner by Euromoney Guide to the World's Leading Experts in Commercial Arbitration. He was shortlisted for "Arbitration Practitioner of the Year" at the Asialaw Asia Pacific Dispute Resolution Awards. He was on the "A-List" of the China Business Law Journal and has been recognized by Chambers Asia-Pacific and by The Legal 500 in the field of international arbitration and construction.

Legal directories and peers have described Peter as "experienced and personable", "excellent", "brilliant", a "very sharp lawyer", "very well prepared", "impressive energy and infrastructure sector credentials", "tremendous expertise in construction arbitration", "highly efficient", "not only modest and prudent but also reliable and professional", and that he "often represents clients in the oil and gas and construction sectors".

Peter is a vice-chair of the IPBA International Construction Projects Committee, and was the chair of the IPBA Energy & Resources Committee, as well as a council member of IPBA. He is also a member to the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR and was a member of the ICC Arbitrator Nomination Committee. He was vice-president of the Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators.
