Current Position

Joint Managing Director, Dunbar & Lim Chambers LLC

Professional Experience

Simon acts as both advocate and arbitrator, focusing on joint-venture, energy, technology, infrastructure and investor-state disputes. With around 20 years of practice, including 18 years based in Singapore, Simon has been involved in some of Asia's most complex and high-value disputes.

He is admitted to practice in Singapore, England & Wales and New York, and has experience of both common law and civil law systems.

Before establishing Dunbar & Lim Chambers, Simon was partner in the global disputes practice of a leading international law firm, having spent more than 17 years at international law firms in Singapore and New York.

Arbitration Experience

In addition to his work as counsel, Simon has served as sole or presiding arbitrator in arbitrations under the SIAC, ICC and UNCITRAL Rules, as well as ad hoc arbitrations, and has issued multiple awards over the last 14 years.

Among other accolades, Simon has been recognised in the legal directories as “an eminent arbitrator with a strong reputation when it comes to high-value disputes” who is “thoughtful, methodical, organised and extremely smart” and “impresses ... with his ‘thorough preparation and complete commitment to the task’.”

Simon currently serves on the ICC Singapore Core Committee, having previously served on the International Relations Committee of the Law Society of Singapore, the Professional Affairs Committee of the Singapore Academy of Law, the Board of Directors of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Singapore Branch) and the Young SIAC Committee.
