Overview

With over 20 years of experience working in Singapore, Hong Kong, New York and London, Chiann Bao practices exclusively as an arbitrator and mediator. As a panel arbitrator of the major arbitral institutions worldwide as well as a Chartered Arbitrator and CEDR-accredited mediator, she has served in almost one hundred arbitrations with a total of several USD billion dollars in dispute. Tri-qualified in New York, England and Wales and Hong Kong, Chiann previously worked in private practice where she focused on complex international arbitration and litigation, acting as counsel for corporates and States in a range of disputes in various sectors.

Chiann serves as a Co-Chair of the IBA's International Arbitration Committee and is an immediate past Vice President of the ICC Court of Arbitration. She chaired the ICC Commission Task Force on ADR and Arbitration which released two reports in 2023. From 2010 to 2018, Chiann served as the Secretary General and then as Council Member of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

Chiann currently serves as a member of the Board of Trustees and is an Honorary Senior Fellow of the British Institute of International and Comparative Law. She is also a member of the Board of Directors of Maxwell Chambers and a member of the Advisory Board of the Journal of International Arbitration.

Regularly ranked by Who's Who Legal and Chambers & Partners, Chiann has been identified as a Who's Who Legal Global Elite Thought Leader and as one of the Most in Demand Arbitrators by Chambers Global (Band 2). She is described as "meticulous, smart, well-prepared and efficient," as well as "very knowledgeable, diligent and a real diplomat." Peers further say that she is a "brilliant lawyer and arbitrator with vast experience working on complex commercial and investment disputes across Asia." She is also regularly recognised by Chambers Asia Pacific as one of the most in demand arbitrators with a "deliberative skill, intellectual engagement, thoroughness and formidable presence."
