SIAC Signs Memorandum of Understanding with Yonsei University Law School

The Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) is pleased to announce that it has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Yonsei University Law School (Yonsei Law) of Seoul, Korea.

Under the MOU, SIAC and Yonsei Law will work together to place law students from Yonsei Law in internships at SIAC, and to offer a module on “SIAC and Institutional Arbitration” as part of the Yonsei Law teaching programme. Upon request by SIAC or Yonsei Law, both parties will also explore conducting joint training programmes, seminars, workshops or other events in Korea to promote the development and practice of international arbitration.

The MOU was signed on 27 August 2021 by Ms Lim Seok Hui, Chief Executive Officer of SIAC, and Dr Hyung Doo Nam, Dean of Yonsei Law.

Dr Hyung Doo Nam, Dean of Yonsei Law, said, “This collaboration with SIAC will further Yonsei Law’s commitment to providing a world-class legal education and conducting innovative research. SIAC is one of the world’s top arbitral institutions, and we are confident that the SIAC Module, internships at SIAC, and other joint programmes with SIAC will offer Yonsei Law students a first-hand institutional perspective of international arbitration.”

Ms Lim Seok Hui, CEO of SIAC, said, “SIAC is delighted to enter into this partnership with one of Korea’s most prestigious law schools, Yonsei Law. We look forward to contributing to its first-rate curriculum through conducting the SIAC Module, providing internships, and hosting events and workshops to nurture future generations of international arbitration experts in Korea.”
