SIAC Signs Memorandum of Understanding with the Arbitration Centre of the Quito Chamber of Commerce

The Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) is pleased to announce that it has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Arbitration Centre of the Quito Chamber of Commerce (CAM-CCQ) today to promote international arbitration as a preferred method of dispute resolution, and to enhance the accessibility, efficiency and effectiveness of international arbitration.

Under the MOU, SIAC and CAM-CCQ will jointly organise in-person, hybrid, and virtual conferences, seminars and workshops on international arbitration. The terms of the MOU also contemplate that SIAC will, subject to the terms of the MOU, assist to request the use of hearing facilities in Maxwell Chambers at preferential rates for Quito-seated arbitration hearings that are held in Singapore. CAM-CCQ will also be providing assistance in arranging the use of hearing facilities at preferential rates for SIAC arbitration hearings that are held in Quito.
